HEALTHCARE CHAPLAINCY SERVICE USER SURVEY

The Northern Ireland Healthcare Chaplains Association (NIHCA) is the professional body for healthcare chaplains in Northern Ireland and aims to support and to equip healthcare chaplains. The NIHCA have commissioned Queen's University Belfast to undertake a study regarding experiences of people who have used healthcare chaplaincy services in Northern Ireland. The research team is keen to hear from people of different faiths and beliefs who have accessed the healthcare chaplaincy service. You could have experience as a patient, family member of / someone close to a patient, or an employee of the healthcare setting. This is a welcomed opportunity to share your views and experiences anonymously.

Please use the URL link to find out more information about the brief survey and to take part.
